(optional)

Anytime before you turn in your final draft, you are welcome to consult with a BWC fellow to discuss strategies for your paper. This step is optional but can be worth up to 20 points. To be awarded full points, you must make an appointment in advance; provide your tutor with a status report of your project and a brief description of what you would like to accomplish during the session; keep your appointment; and provide a brief discussion of the benefits (or disappointments) associated with the session.
